PRESS RELEASE

Tradestar Resources Corporation Announces Alliance with Rockwell Energy in Texas Operations

HOT SPRINGS, AR--(MARKET WIRE)--Aug 22, 2006 -- Tradestar Resources Corporation (Other OTC:TSRR.PK - News) announced today that the company has formed an alliance with Rockwell Energy. Rockwell is a Houston, Texas-based Oil & Gas Company, and will be operating the wells in the Karnes County project for Tradestar in the (Hysaw-Hobson) Lease. The two companies have formally agreed to participate together in multiple joint venture projects for oil & gas development in Texas, Oklahoma, and Louisiana.

Tradestar has acquired additional Karnes County lease acreage with an existing well (Hysaw-Hobson No. 6A, adjacent to the existing Hysaw wells) that will be equipped and completed within the next few weeks. This additional well in our already established field is expected to add good production revenues and value to the company. Tradestar will also be participating in a re-completion for a Wilcox gas well in Karnes County (Janssen #1A).
